

Obsidian Security Limited

This document should be read in conjunction with the Terms and Conditions of Business and/or Terms and Conditions of Sale.

Privacy

Obsidian Security Limited shall comply with all applicable UK General Data Protection Regulations in place in respect of any personal information relating to you or information pertaining to your company.

Obsidian Security Limited will not supply customer or personal information held to other parties who could use it for commercial purposes.

Lawful Basis

Our identified lawful basis to collect information about you &/or your Company is to fulfil our legal contractual obligations. This could be in the form of:

- A request to carry out a survey
- a request to provide a quotation
- creating a contract for maintenance agreements
- providing invoices for work carried out
- sending statements of monthly accounts

Article 6(1)(b) gives a lawful basis for processing personal/Company information where:

“processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract”

Security

Obsidian Security processes personal data in a manner that ensures its security. This includes protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing and against accidental loss, destruction or damage. Appropriate technical measures are used to destroy printed data and organisational measures are in place to protect stored documentation both in paper form and electronically.
